

Breast Implants USA:
Questions to ask a prospective breast surgeon

- A. How long has the surgeon been doing breast augmentation?
- B. Has the plastic surgeon ever had his/her medical malpractice insurance denied or revoked?
- C. How many breast augmentation has the doctor done in total?
- D. Is there a warranty on the implants?
- E. How long will the procedure take?
- F. What are the risks of having a breast augmentation? Both short term and long term?
- G. What type of anesthesia will be used and who will administer it?
- H. Where will the procedure be performed?
- I. Does the plastic surgeon have any before and after photos to view?
- J. How long will it take to recover fully?
- K. What can I expect in the recovery process?
- L. Is there anything I can do to make the recovery process quicker?
- M. Are my goals realistic?
- N. Am I a good candidate for a Breast Augmentation?
- O. Are there any questions most patients asked that I have not asked?
- P. How soon can I have the surgery?